IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of:

six(6) months on Count 1.

☒ The court makes the following recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

Because of defendant's former employment as a state correctional officer, the court is concerned for his safety while in custody. He has family in Philadelphia who will want to visit him and has asked to be designated to a facility close to Philadelphia. Defendant's safety is the court's primary concern. If he can be designated to a facility which will insure his safety and allow for visits from his family, the court would recommend this. Since a fine and special assessment have been imposed, it is recommended that defendant participate in the BoP's inmate financial responsibility program, and that he make payments of no less than $25 per quarter toward his $2,000 fine and $100 special assessment.

☐ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.

☐ The defendant shall surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:

- ☐ at _____ ☐ a.m. ☐ p.m. on _____ .
☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.

☒ The defendant shall surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:

- ☒ before 2 p.m. on November 29, 2010 .
☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.
☐ as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Services Office.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

In addition to complying with the standard terms and conditions of supervised release, defendant shall:

1. comply with the terms and conditions of house arrest as outlined by his probation officer;
2. maintain gainful employment at an occupation approved by the court;
3. attend and participate in such educational or vocational program(s) as his probation officer directs;
4. perform community service for no less than 20 hours per week at an activity approved by the court on recommendation of his probation officer, if he is unemployed after six months from release from custody;
5. attend and participate in such mental health counselling and/or treatment, addressing particularly his gambling problem, until released from this obligation by the court on recommendation of his probation officer;
6. attend and participation in financial counselling until released from this obligation by the court on recommendation of his probation officer;
7. make regular monthly payments toward any unpaid balance due on this fine ($2,000) and special assessment ($100) in the amount of $50 per month, to commence 30 days after he is gainfully employed;
8. provide his probation officer with full disclosure of his financial records including yearly income tax returns upon request, cooperate with his probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings, and provide truthful monthly statements of his income;
9. refrain from incurring any new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of his probation officer unless defendant is in compliance with a payment schedule for his financial obligations to this court;
10. refrain from encumbering or liquidating any assets unless it is in direct service of his financial obligations to this court; and
11. notify the U.S. Attorney's office within 30 days of any change of mailing address or residence that occurs while any portion of his financial obligations to the court remain unpaid.

The Probation Office shall send written reports to this court every ninety (90) days regarding defendant's progress while under supervision.
